A Would-be Congressman Under a Phonographic Microscope.

The announcement that Charles A. Tuttle, the Independent candidate for Congress from this District, would address the citizens of the southern portion of the county on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, created a curiosity to know what that gentleman would have to say upon matters and things in general and local affairs in particular. The services of a competent phonographic reporter, Mr. Charles F. Whitton, of San Francisco, were therefore secured, and Mr. Tuttle's flights of thought were caught and preserved at the end of pen from his lips, and they are here presented in full. [illegible] when we publish the following as his own words. And some of them may not prove a pleasing [illegible] to be very guarded in his language. His reference to the [illegible] Anderson and [illegible] was wholly unfounded and utterly false.

Development of a Rich Mine.

The Empire Consolidated Gold and Silver Mill and Mining Company of Oakland, California, organized under the laws of California, with a capital stock of 60,000 shares at a par value of $100 per share.

The Company's mines are situated in Truckee Mining District, Lassen county, Nevada, and are about six miles from the Central Pacific Railroad, at Hot Springs Station, thirty-five miles east of Reno, and nineteen miles in a direction of Wadsworth.

The consolidation embraces two lodes of gold and silver bearing quartz, each three and one-half feet thick, and fifteen hundred feet in length, together with several lateral lines, or spurs. The lodes lie parallel and are about 100 feet apart, with smaller lodes between, on the east side of the mountains, and their course is northeast and southwest, with an inclination thereto of 60 degrees.

These lodes have been prospected to a depth of between thirty and forty feet, steadily improving the deeper it goes.

Ten tons of the ore have been milled, yielding $80 per ton.

The lodes are well defined and increase in width downward. By shafts or tunnels now at work, the mines are accessible from the railroad by a good road, and rich ores are plentiful at short distance, the rest of the way being on a gradual slope.

There is no ore nearer than Reno, forty miles from Hot Springs.

At Wadsworth, nineteen miles from Hot Springs Station, the Company have a splendid mill site and water rights sufficient for a twenty-stamp mill. The Truckee river runs near the property at all seasons of the year. The company's ores will be taken to this mill, at a cost of [illegible] per ton, which is estimated to be [illegible].

Twenty thousand shares of the Company's stock will be let as dues at the time of the first ten thousand shares which will be sold at $10 per share, and the remainder at $2. The proceeds will be devoted to the development of the mine and building a mill.

The Company's stock will be issued at 30c. Board ordered [illegible] are to be disposed of by these shares or [illegible].

This enterprise offers inducements to people in the counties [illegible] of the Company to invest at a low rate, and as [illegible] rich a development, [illegible] where mining is [illegible] known value of the mines [illegible] and [illegible] with all [illegible] the stock, the money [illegible] to developing the mine, building [illegible].

With this view the Company's water rights in Wadsworth, in the center of an extensive mining district, [illegible] where [illegible] [illegible] will make the Company, [illegible] [illegible] dividends [illegible].

FRED. T. BROWN,
SAM. LOYD.

OAKLAND, July 14th, 1875.

NEW FIRM.

REFERRING TO THE ABOVE, WE TAKE pleasure in informing the public that we will continue the business with a

Fresh Stock of Groceries,

AT THE CORNER OF TELEGRAPH AVENUE AND BROWN STREET.

And by strict attention to the wants of our customers to deserve the continuance of the patronage of the public.

We shall continue to receive our supplies of Erdman's Pure Yeast Powders and Erdman's Pure Baking Powders.

Which we say is the best and most wholesome baking powder in use, and guaranteed to make the lightest bread and biscuits. But do not be deceived by powders not containing our name.

Not only families but the trade generally will be supplied at lowest possible price. Every can shall have our warrant of purity.

We shall have our usual large stock of first-class Groceries of the best brands, and we shall be able to please the public with our stock.

"This Mildens Business Y"

We intend to be beyond competition in low prices, as we shall endeavor to deserve the confidence of all.

ONE CAN of the above goods is worth a trial and we guarantee it to be the finest baking powder. We ask every one who has tried it to recommend it to their friends.
